GARFIELD EN ROUTE EAST.

A Brilliant Torchlight Reception at Buffalo.

Manifestation of Popular Enthusiasm for the Cause of Which He is the Representative.

General Garfield's Departure from Mentor. CLEVELAND, OHIO, Aug. 3.-General Garflald left his home at Mentor, Ohio, this evening for the east, traveling in a special car which was placed at his disposal by the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern Railroad company. The general was met at Geneva by Congressman Conger of Michigan and Benjamin Harrison, Godlove S. Orth and General Streight of rison, Godove S. Orn and General Strength of Indiana. The party went to Ruffalo, where they will wait over one train and then go to New York to attend the conference of the national republican committee and distin-guished men of that party.

A Torchlight Reception at Buffalo, BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 3.—The republicans of this city tendered a grand ovation to Gen-eral Garfield on his visit to this city this evening. The different clubs and organizations of the city, accompanied by a large delegation from the adjoining country towns, formed in procession with torates and Chinese lauterns, fully 3,000 being in line. The train on which the distinguished visitor arrived was delayed about one hour arriving large about 10 o'clock. fully 3,000 being in line. The train on which the distinguished visitor arrived was delayed about one hour, arriving here about 10 o'clock. The line of march to Congressman Pierco's hotel was brilliantly lliuminated, while those in the line of march were liberally furnished with fireworks, giving the streets a beautifully brilliant appearance. General Garfield was accompanied to the city by O. D. Congor of Michigan, William McKinley of Ohlo, John C. New, A. D. Streight, Ben Harrison, G. S. Orth of Indiana, Judge Morrison of Illinois, Major D. G. Swayne, private secretary, and J. F. Moch of the Sandusky Repister, and a large delegation of preminent republicans of this city, together with Chairman Jewell, Judge Hooker, General Fred Townsend and others, who went from here this afternoon, meeting the distinguished party at Dunkirk, Arriving at the depot the party took carriages and, escorted by the assembled organizations, proceeded to their hotel, which was brilliantly filuminated from top to bottom, where, in response to the electer of the people assembled, and following a serenade by the bands, General Garfield, accompanied by distinguished friends, appeared upon the balcony and spoke briefly, as follows:

Speech by General Garfield.

Speech by General Garfield.

Frilow-Cirights: The specials I have witnessed in your city to-night is far grander than any pageantry that can be created by anything except the onthushasm and the ideas and the faith of the men embarked in a great and worthy cause. It does not mean any man in the world—it means your faith, your hope, your purpose. So far as I in any sense represent these, I accept your congratulations with thanks and I give you all that is best in my mind in reply for your magnificant demonstration. I am passing up through your city and for a few hours, not stopping to discuss politics, not to make speeches, but I stopped this moment tong enough to recognize your great meeting and great greeting and thank you for it with all my heart.

Prolonged applauss followed the general's speech, which was followed by short speeches. Speech by General Garfield.

Washington last evening. After calling upon Commodore Jeffers, acting secretary of the navy, the admiral visited Secretary Evarts and explained to him in detail the position of the Canto at the time of the interception of the American schooners Merritt and New-combe, as laid down upon the charts prepared by the officers of the Canto. Admiral Wyman relterates the statement made in his resecret of the matter, but freely extended to him the privilege of examining the report of the commander of the Canto, and unequivo-cally disavowed any intentional insult to our flag or the commission of any act at variance with the usages of civilized countries.

Meeting of the Cabinet.

At the cabinet meeting yesterday all the de partments with the exception of the war department were represented. The consideration of ordinary routine business occupied most of the time of the session, which was not very protracted. The Spanish difficulties were referred to, but in consequence of the statement made by Commodore Jeffers, representing the navy department, that that de partment expected the arrival of Admiral Wy man within the next twenty-four hours wit full details of his recent investigations sideration of the subject was postponed.

The Spanish and American Navies, A distinguished officer of the navy in conversation with a Rupuntican reporter last night said that the naval force of Spain was vastly overrated. Her most effective, in fact her only effective vessels, were the gaulouts, some fifty of which were built for Spain in this country. Outside of these her vessels were generally obsolete hulks. The Spaniard only for a brief period achieved reputation as a sea fighter, and that against Turks. Against the ngiles, the French, the buccausers and even against the Algerines after the days of Charles V., the Spaniard fought only to be outna-tenared, outsailed and whipped every time. In the event of a war between the United States and Spain it was sheer nonsense to assert that Spain could do us any particular damage. At the same time the ollow in question thought it very strange that so powerful nation as the United States should be con tent with so feeble a mavy as we now have.

Virginia Politics.

To the Editor of The National Republican: Str: To-night a Garfield and Archur club was organized by the election of Major Charles Williams president, William H. Yentes, socretary, and Simon Barcey, treasurer. Fifty-five names were earolled, and among them are me who have never voted the republican ket. W. R. Laws made a most encouraging speech, which was well received. Henry T Bragdon was expelled from the party organi zation by a resolution unanimously adopted and John Sullinger elected to fill his place on The congressional committee, A resolution indusing the nomination of John W. Wolrs, exq., for congress, and pledging the support of the members, was passed. At the next meeting of the club 150 more members, it is ex-pected, will caroli their names. Note of the federal office-bolders here were present. Some of them may be induced to Join us after namids. Reconstruct.

The ball, which was originally fixed at $4,000, was not reduced.

The case of Rev. Thomas B. Miller, who is committee, according to Senator Dorsey, will take no part in the reception, which will be charged with having fraudulently issued tickets to John Norris, one of them purport-ing to entitle him to a matriculation term in the Philadelphia University of Medicine and argery, and the others purporting to entitle university during the assion of 1879 and 1880, some of which were antedated to make attendance at a full course unnecessary, was heard this morning, and the prisoner was held in $2.000 hour.

Alleged Train-Wreckers Arrested. DANVILLE, VA., Aug. 3 .- Last Wednesday ight the track of the Piedmont railroad was obstructed by cross-ties fastened upon it for the purpose of wrecking the train at an exceedingly dangerous point, known as the state the republican national committee denied tostruction. The railroad authorities employed detectives to ferret out the gullty wretches, and yesterday Detective Wren of Richmond arrosted two negroes employed as farm laborers near the scene, but who were fermerly section hands on the railroad. The evidence against them is said to be conclusive. Their motive is believed to be revenge against the section-master for discharging them from their railroad employment.

Virginia.

At Spottsylvania Court-house on Monday a arge gathering of democrats assembled to elect delegates to their conventions to nominate candidates for congress. Both the readunters and regulars clocked delegates. There was very little talk of compromise. The democratic internal war has encouraged the republicans, and they are making greater forts than ever to organize. The readjust-res meeting was quict, and they soon got-brough with their business in the court-louse, after which the regulars held their menting, which was very much more exciting, as there was a contest between the friends of ioneral Beale and Judge Goobrick, in which the latter was successful.

Representation and Taxation, There is much complaint on account of the tardiness of the taxpayers of this city in pay ing the taxes now levied upon them, but did those who murmur at this condition of things ever think that it is really a wonder that 180,000 people who are taxed without representation should pay any taxes at all? It is a fundamental principle of a republican form of bis, having been bitten by a dog seven weeks George Bell and Henry Cleary, charged with government that representation and taxation defrauding Battimore banks out of $10,000 to shall go together. This principle is utterly $12,000 by forged checks, was set down for violated in the formation of our present District flum of the Tombs, however, stated that writs of habina corpus had been served upon him for the mensed. Assistant-District Attermy Sullivan stated that a requisition had becomed that a requisition had been obtained from the governor of Maryland, and that the governor was anxious that Chary and that the governor was anxious that Chary should go to Albany to answer charges against him there.
